Building Bone Health: Tips to Help Prevent Osteoporosis

Bones provide our bodies with much-needed support, serving as footholds for our muscles, protecting our organs and delivering essential calcium. As you age, your bone metabolism slows, leading to bone loss or, in some cases, osteoporosis.

While some people are more at risk for developing osteoporosis, there are some steps you can take to help prevent this condition.

Sponsorships

Thanks to your support, more than 150,000 students experiencing homelessness will receive new athletic shoes this year through the Soles 4 Soles 4EveryKid program. Something as simple as a pair of shoes means belonging and opportunity to a child in need. Students who receive shoes attend school more regularly, are more confident and become more engaged in the classroom and extracurricular activities.
